THE JUNIOR PLAY

THE JUNIOR CLASS presented "The Turtle Dove" by Margaret Scott Oliver and "The Wonder Hat" by Ben Hecht and Kenneth Sawyer Goodwin with unusual skill and dramatic perception. Both these plays were fanciful and unique.

"The Turtle Dove" was a Chinese play acted in the Chinese manner, and the characters were those found on a Chinese tray.

The principals in the cast, the Mandarin played by Stanley Brown, his daughter, Kwen-Lin, Florence Bouten, and Chang-Sut-Yen, son of the Great Ruler of Canton, Geraldine Acosta, proved they had mastered their difficult parts. The remaining members of this competent cast were as follows: Chorus, Eric Tyler, The God of Fate, John Spicer, the Gong Bearer, Alice Hutchinson, and the Property Man, Helen Van Alstyne.

"The Wonder Hat" a Harlequinade, was clever and imaginative. The scene was laid in a park by moonlight. Harlequin, played by Jere Whitehead was an appealing hero and lover. Ethyl Barrett lent her charming personality to the difficult part of Columbine. Harry Pearl had an exacting character part in the role of Punchinello, the charm peddler. Pierrot was skillfully played by Pierre Purcell, who added humorous touches to the play. Margot, the shrew, as played by Marion Hylan, lost none of her ferocious independence.

These plays were considered real dramatic triumphs for the Junior Class, and the interest evidenced by other members of the school was greatly appreciated.

THE SENIOR PLAY

HAPPINESS, a modern drama, presented by the Senior Class of 1925 was acclaimed a dramatic success of considerable merit and added substantially to the record made by the class of 1925 in former years.

Ruth Willis, in the leading role of Jenny, won the hearts of her audience by her unfailing optimism, and in her sincere acting showed considerable talent and ability. In the part of Fermoy MacDonagh, Francis Kriney was an apt comedian and hero. The audience enjoyed the humor and suspense which he added to the action of the play. Marion Hylan, as the rotund Miss Perkins, displayed her powers as a clever comedian and added sparkle and fun to the play. As Mrs. Chrystal Pole, Ethyl Barrett was an excellent bored and haughty widow in search of happiness; while John Spicer, her gallant admirer, Phillip Chandos, also showed much ability. Pierre Purcell gave a splendid portrayal of John Scowcroft, the wealthy business tyrant and father of Mrs. Pole. Barbara Dunn was a typical shop girl, whose eyes and tongue just wouldn't behave. Mrs. Wreay, the mother of Jenny, played by Helen Van Alstyne, was a character part demanding considerable skill.

Margaret Schmidt, as an applicant, added her talent to the distinguished cast, which also included Alfred Bremble, Barbara Sykes, and Benedict Bernstein.

The play was one of the finest productions ever staged by a Senior Class, and its success was due principally to the dramatic ability of the cast and the co-operation of the students.

THE JUNIOR ROAST OF 1925

MANY disobedient Juniors were arraigned in the Senior Court for past indiscretions and misdemeanors. To add to their discomfort, a blood-thirsty war song, composed by Marion Hylan, was sung by the Senior Class, and several pistol shots were heard in the distance.

After the strenuous ordeal of disciplining the criminals, the Seniors were led to the festal board of the Junior Class, and all rivalries were forgotten.

CLASS POEM

Helen Van Alstyne

High on the peak of life's mountain,
The temple of power and success,
Summons pilgrims to climb the rough pathway,
And steadily onward to press.
From the depths of a pleasant green valley,
As Freshmen we happily sped,
To discover the pathway toward knowledge,
Endeav'ring to seek where it led.
When, as Sophomores, the journey grew longer,
And obstacles mocked at our load,
We, with patience and firm perseverance,
Traversed eagerly hardship's long road.
Still struggling to reach the bright summit,
Juniors glimpsing the fair goal nearby,
We marched with our hearts filled with courage,
Heads hopefully lifted on high.
At dusk in the joy of achievement,
With torches of knowledge alight,
Seniors passed through the lingering darkness,
And conquered the threatening night.
Yet the shrine still commands us to follow,
The highways of future success,
Seek further for pathways of wisdom,
Look upward, speed forward, progress.

Class Prophecy

RUSSELL ACKOR

He will continue his career as an electrical engineer until he finally succeeds in making telephone connections with North Plainfield—Beverly 2.

ETHYL BARRETT

A cousin is not Ethyl's only friend at West Point. She'll "Pegg" along with "Dumont", however, for some time.

DOUGLAS ANGLEMAN

Douglas will be "Phelan" blue, altho the sunset is a mild red (Mildred) when he is canoeing in the High School pool.

ROBINSON BOND

Robinson will become a proficient dancer in ten lessons if he continues his training under "Schmidt's" instruction. His favorite fox-trot is "Margaret" and we know he'll always enjoy dancing to this tune.

MARGARET MACINTYRE

After Peg is through college with high honors, she will be sent on an expedition to explore "Cliffs" in her "ford" equipped with "Geary" brakes. She is sure to be successful.

RUDOLPH HEFTI

It won't be very many years now before every one will be talking about America's great humorist, Rudolph Hefti. His best work will be a parody on Macbeth.

MARGARET MELVILLE

This snappy bit of Jamica Ginger has made quite a hit at West Point with Ethyl as chaperon. We're wondering if she likes military weddings.

HARRY PEARL

Harry will become an actor of renown on Broadway. He will play the leading role in "Abie's Irish Rose" which will at the time be celebrating its golden anniversary.

EDWARD STRAPP

Ed will replace Babe Ruth not only as an outfielder but in banging the pill over the fence.

RICHARD TULL

Dick, our handsome man, will receive a good "Price" from the Arrow Collar Company for acting as a model. His several sweethearts may not want his beauty to become public so they'll persuade him to give it up.

MILDRED PHELAN

Having "Doug" into her pocket to pay the "Bill", Mildred will "Angle" "Wright"ly for the men of noble "Hugh".

Ed. Note—Tweet "Twiddy" sang the bird.

ROBERT HOWE

Bob is rather an uncertain quantity. He may some day be editor of the Times or a professor at Yale. Our valedictorian will occupy a responsible position with his better half by his side, Jeannette, Ruth, Betty—Who knows?

ESTELLE BURKE

After spending some time in "Habirnian's" Academy of Art, Estelle will travel to Mercersburg where she will teach "Het" the beauty of the "fields" on a "Sonny" day.

OLIVER DEAKIN

Ecclesiastical College next, and then the ministry. Can't you just hear him and "Tommy" singing "Saums" on Sunday?

BETTY CARPENTER

After finishing her course in P. H. S., Betty will go to the "John William's" teachers' college. Upon completing her studies there, she will go to the "Emerson" School to "Earnest"ly teach the little "Teddy"s a story entitled "The Bar Time (Bartine) is Over"

FRED CASKEY

Fred's good looks are going to lead him into the moving picture business we know. Here is one who can rival Doug or Rudy in the ladies' hearts.

CORNELIA CRAIG

Why has Cornelia never had a "Bob"? Won't Ralph let her or is she waiting for a Dutch cut according to Van Blarickson?

WINIFRED CUMMING

Winnie is very likely to become a leader in the "Van". Some day, but "not yet" (Chet) she will become one of the world's best prophetesses.

MARY DOUGLAS

Mary, our promising little teacher, plans a summer course to teach the younger generation in the country, but we think she would be more successful home in North Plainfield, teaching the small "Pauls" and "Hennies" their A, B, C's.

GEORGE McANENY

George is slated to go to West Point to learn to be a soldier. Perhaps Ruth will help him. We wish him much success.

FLORENCE BOUTON

She blushes all 'Hughes' of the rainbow at the name of Tom.

ALFRED BREMBLE

After a few more summer romances at Manasquan, Babe will settle down with a certain "Teena" little gel—a gentleman to the end of his days.

MARION HYLAN

After leaving P. H. S., Marion will sail over the "Bill"owy deeps to "Roome". She will soon return to "Morris"town, where she will act as secretary in the "Goodman's" Motor Co. The manager will keep her "till he" (Tilley) finds someone more "Frank".

TOM HUGHES

Tom will become the leading cheer leader at college. After his education is completed, he will enter the clothing business, selling suits with "Flossie Buttons".

ELEANOR SHEARMAN

Eleanor is a brilliant student and is sure to succeed wherever she goes. At present she is contemplating prospects in Boston and Princeton where she will continue to make friends.

HERBERT YOUNG

Herbert likes to read the Bible, especially the book of Ruth. However his attention is divided between the "Ainscough" and "Nelson" versions. Herbert hopes to grow to be a crack athlete with the girls watching his stunts.

WARREN LEGGE

When Warren becomes master of "Flynn" "Hall", he'll be just "Dotty" over "Sedans" (Suydan).

FRANCIS KRINEY

— At Rutgers, big as life, Frank will strut his stuff, dividing his attention between "Andy" and the New Brunswick beauties. He may go on the stage as the original funny man. We hope he does. He'll be a winner.

ALICE HUTCHINSON

As an orator, Alice comes from Swarthmore with a passionate eloquence on "The Secluded Life—If Any".

WILLIAM LURIE

We'll see Bill pointed out soon as the world's foremost athlete. Nothing will stump him—baseball, football, or basketball.

ANNE DUCHESNE

Anne, the athletic, piles the score; Harry can not ask for more.

BARBARA DUNN

Barbara, one of our esteemed athletes, plans a course at the "muscle factory", where she will incidentally learn the value of "Terry" cloth and "Hines" cream, only to return later to "Jerry" of Somerville, and commence collecting "Bills" again.

HARRY FETHERSTON

Harry, our smiling sheik, will probably spend most of his time in "Sylvian" nooks; but when he's "Dunn, it may be Barbara."

CLAIRE GEARY

It's fortunate to have a brother at Blair, very fortunate. Claire is preordained to be a world famous college widow.

ARTHUR FRANCK

Just because he has a "Martini" once in a while doesn't mean that he's a drinking man. Oh, no! Our future college star couldn't do that and make the teams at Illinois University.

BRADFORD GESBOCKER

When his college days are over, and the Olympic shot put record safely cinched, he'll take up coaching the shot putters at Rutgers.

CLARENCE HAIGHT

When our president goes to college, he'll be wishing all the time that it would rain "Kats" and dogs. We hope he'll remember to carry an umbrella for the lady.

WILLIAM NEIDLINGER

Bill will engage in "Calkin" boats and inventing an extra high powered motor for his new electrical boat, the "Dorothy".

SAUL NAIDORFF

Undoubtedly one of America's most eloquent orators. His favorite peace will be "An Ode to the Con"stel" (Estelle) ation.

MORRIS SCHRIER

If the arguments "Shrimp" gives Mr. Banta are any sign, he'll make one fine lawyer.

MARGARET SAVILLE

Knowing the "Van"ity of human wishes, we hope to see a diamond "Winkle" on her finger and her wedding bells knell soon (Nelson).

GERALD SCHLEY

He will hurt his thumb (Thum) in the village "smithy".

MARGARET SCHMIDT

She'll be a gym teacher I "Ges" or maybe she'll "Bob" up as a dancing instructor—you never can tell.

JOHN SPICER

John will seek a business career in "Virginia". We hear that he wants to become a "Bond" salesman, and he will probably be successful in this line of work.

ELLEN RÖBINSON

Ellen will be an authoress, and her best book will be, "The Technique of Telling Ghost Stories". In New York she'll be noted for her very original designs in clothes.

ERIC TYLER

Eric will take up navigation on Cedar Brook so he can be "Andy" when Doris calls. In New York he will learn much history, even going back as far as "Helen" of Troy.

RUTH WILLIS

When Ruth is a twinkling star on Broadway, she will never have to "Hunt" further for a career, for a "Johnnie" will be waiting at the door to take her home in his flivver.

CALEB WESTERGARD

After having defeated Willie Hoppe, Cable will become manager of the New York Billiard Academy.

RUTH YORKS

When Ruth is blue "or in" (Orin) a state of melancholy, she never thinks of "Howelling", but chases her troubles away by reading a letter from Rutgers.

HARRY HANSEN

Oh little Harry Hansen, so debonair and gay, will some day make a match with our little brown-eyed "Kay". At Princeton he will study hard, and then he'll be a doctor's pard.

NEAL MULLIN

Neal, our bluffer, ought to be a broker or a lawyer. But whatever profession he chooses, Ruth will help him.

HELEN VAN ALSTYNE

Helen will start out for Hollywood, but will probably get lost passing through Morristown. We are sure she "Ken" find her way if she drives fast in her "Pierce" Arrow and uses "Nathan's" guide book.

JOSEPH TURNER

Joe is going to Princeton so that he can continue his studies in romance started in P. H. S., but when he gets through, he will probably take up zoology so he can study "Kats" more closely.

DONALD MORGAN

Donald is going to college like many other ambitious boys. We hope he'll not "Ru'e it and come back a"gen" (again).

PIERRE PURCELL

Pierre will drive his car slowly when he approaches the Highlands (Hylan) with Marion.

FRESHMEN

AS the lovely caterpillar first ventures into the world so the now illustrious class of '25 entered High School as ignoble, meek Freshies. How came those Freshmen there and why? They crawled and wiggled in a last effort to spin a cocoon and to die, gone but not forgotten. These Freshmen as usual did not create much of a stir. How could they? They were only lowly caterpillars, maltreated by Sophomores, ignored by Juniors, and barely recognized by the dignified Seniors. But that lowly caterpillar was recognized at the Freshman reception where the caterpillar mingled with the butterflies and moths. Literary talent began to assert itself and the ugly worm promised to furnish plenty of intellectual prize winners. The caterpillar was not athletic, but he certainly had the brains, as the Oracle might testify. Then the weather became warm, the caterpillar climbed a tree after much labor, wound around himself a silken house, and so be—a cocoon. The Freshmen became Sophs.

SOPHOMORES

THE cocoon had been spun and in it was the nucleus of future greatness and beauty. There was action and life inside that cocoon however. The Sophomore dance was one of the best dances given in the world of caterpillars, butterflies and moths. Russian waitresses served non-Russian food at Russianized tables, and one butterfly did a Russian dance. Yes, there was movement inside the cocoon and of a very forceful nature. The cocoon appeared peaceful, but appearances are deceitful, and in this case the quiet protended big things. A year rolled round and the chrysalis burst and a butterfly came forth, a rather bedraggled butterfly, but with promise of something fine. The Sophomores were no longer wise fools.

JUNIORS

THE newly developed butterfly sat and sunned himself. Before he could fly any distance, he had to dry his wings and strengthen the tiny muscles. He did this in several ways. His first undertaking was the production of the Junior Plays, which were an unparalleled success from a dramatic and a financial point of view. Next came the task of purchasing Junior rings which he completed with efficiency and financial success. But in his attempt to outdo himself he bought a vast quantity of stationery which he could not sell thereby greatly reducing his funds. The "Seniors" quite shrivelled the poor butterfly with their roasting, but he recovered and ended the year with a rush to cancel his deficit.

SENIORS

THE butterfly spread his wings, developed more varied types and colors, appeared in all his glory and became a Senior. Then was the time to hold his head high, pay off his debt and become an honored citizen. How did the new Senior do this? He paid weekly dues, sold very little writing paper, and gave dances. For the honor of the genius, he played football and basketball and even went out for baseball, track and swimming. His friends in sport will miss him greatly when he passes on. More than ever before, the lowly ones realized the dramatic ability of the Senior, when he helped make such a glorious success, one of the greatest in the history of his species, that clever musical comedy "Miss Cherry Blossom". The butterfly spread his wings in all the glory of Japanese kimonos and American sport clothes. The Senior play—who will forget it—was the greatest Senior play success in the history of good old Plainfield High. Here again the butterfly starred with Irish brogue and Brooklyn slang. Yes, the butterfly has finished his flight, has won great honors and has worn them gracefully. Now he passes on to make more room for more lowly caterpillars. We greet you, glorious Alumni.

Last Will and Testament

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

WE, the exalted and immortelle class of 1925, being in an uncontradictable status of perfect mental and physical stability, having established a record unprecedented and unique, do hereby asseverate, propound, substantiate, and ordain this, our Last Will and Testament, to apportion to our several legatees the various accumulations of our glorious reign. And, being at peak of our impregnability, we do constrain and coerce our beneficiaries into the acknowledgment of the bequests hereinafter designated, vidilicet:

To our respected friends and advisers, the Faculty.

Unus—The memory of the distinguished scholars, Robert Howe and Margaret Macintyre.

Duo—To Mr. Banta in general the dubious pleasure of trying to dazzle the Senior basketballers with his emerald armor.

Tres—To the feminine half of the faculty the right to vanquish the girls of 1926 in basketball.

Quattuor—To Miss LeFevre in particular, the dismal hope of finding stage managers to match our inimitables, Eric Tyler and John Spicer.

To Our Sister Class of 1927:

Premier—The right to vanquish the class of 1926 in the Cane Rush, as we did.

Deuxieme—The bitter pain of roasting at the Senior's fire, and the doubtful joy of feeding your tormentors.

Troisieme—The honor of maintaining the record of the Student Patrol for efficiency, established during these former years and perfected during our sovereignty.

Quatrieme—The weighty responsibility and dignified station of upper classmen.

To the Class of 1928:

First—The right to exercise the long coveted privilege of issuing commands.

To you we consign the class of '29 to boss, browbeat and bully.

Second—Seats on the first floor in chapel from which you may swell the tide of cheers as Sophomores.

To the Incoming Freshmen:

Primero—Our glorious colors, Red and Gray, with which you may once more beautify our halls.

Secundo—The obligation of meekly obeying all and sundry commands uttered by your immediate superiors, the Sophomores.

Tercero—The art (known only to ourselves) of being sufficiently innocent and pitiful to win pardon from Miss Moore.

To Our Successors, The Class of 1926:

Unus—The valuable help and wise advice of our respected counsellor, Mr. Hubbard.

Secundus—The hope (never to be fulfilled) of equalling our famous celebration of Baby Day.

Tertius—The enjoyable opportunity to roast the class of 1927, and to dine royally at their expense.

Quartus—The front seats in chapel which will, no doubt, be rather large for you.

Quintus—The difficult task of finding actors capable of presenting a play equal to our Senior Play, "Happiness".

In witness whereof, this sixteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, and in the Independence of the United States one hundred and forty-nine, and in the Predominance of the Red and Gray year One, we do hereunto affix our massive seal and footprints.

FOOTBALL

HEREIN P. H. S. avenged herself for last year's discrepancy. Under the leadership of able and surprising (see the North Plainfield game) Babe Bremble, she tripped up the opponents in every game but three. The season opened by a well-roughed clash with Rahway. Although the latter had a squad of twelve letter-men, and P. H. S. only four, the score was merely 6-0 in favor of the other side. At Summit Plainfield met an equal enemy in a sea of soft sloppy slush, hence she emerged as she went in, 0-0, but a trifle damper. Nevertheless the team was still not destined to score while Montclair pushed it to a 6-0 verdict. Then the rope broke. Plainfield let loose and conquered Trenton 14-14, or perhaps it would be better to say "tied" them. However, undaunted, we ran New Brunswick to the ground, white-washing them 13-0. But some people are never satisfied.

Westfield met a complete upset at our merciless hands, 18-0. Next to defeat marched Battin, 21-0. The two best games were yet to come. At East Orange P. H. S. held their unconquered and untied team to 0-0 until the final whistle. A dropkick was goaled by the opponents, ending the game 3-0. But what a game! And the scare East Orange had kept them awake nights with the horror of it.

Last, but not least, we vanquished North Plainfield. Our rivals from over the brook miscalculated us every bit, 33-0! Even Captain Bremble sloughed through for a 60 yard touch-down, an unusual thing for a Captain at tackle to do. Here are the results in tabulation:

|                            |    |                      |    |
|----------------------------|----|----------------------|----|
| Rahway . . . . .           | 6  | Plainfield . . . . . | 0  |
| Summit . . . . .           | 0  | Plainfield . . . . . | 0  |
| Montclair . . . . .        | 6  | Plainfield . . . . . | 0  |
| Trenton . . . . .          | 14 | Plainfield . . . . . | 14 |
| New Brunswick . . . . .    | 0  | Plainfield . . . . . | 13 |
| Westfield . . . . .        | 0  | Plainfield . . . . . | 18 |
| Battin . . . . .           | 0  | Plainfield . . . . . | 21 |
| East Orange . . . . .      | 3  | Plainfield . . . . . | 0  |
| North Plainfield . . . . . | 0  | Plainfield . . . . . | 33 |

Great credit must be given to Bremble, Hetfield, Smith, Terry, Naidorf, Lurie, Deakin, A. Greenblatt, Davidson, Gesbocker, Franck, Miller, Booth, Adelberg, Smith, E. Greenblatt, Crowley, Tull, Bond, Drake, Jaekel, Haight, Owens, Young, Krans, Mauro, and Bullock. "Jazz" Smith will be the captain of '25.

SOCCKER

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL became a little more noticeable this year, when the P. H. S. team, having but one letter man, Captain Schreier, ended up with a fair average. 3 lost, 3 won, and 1 tied. More points were scored by us than in all other years put together (which may not be saying much). The season opened with a loss to Bound Brook, 3-2. In the next game the team served notice on Bound Brook and reversed the score. It was still very weak, however. In the Woodbridge game Plainfield improved and won 4-1. Then Wardlaw tackled us and lost. On a cold December day we invaded Trenton only to be trounced 7-0 by a real team. Our players showed the best form so far, though. East Orange played us in a sea of mud and won 3-0. But the last game is where we fooled them. Barringer came out 2-2. The best game, the last game, and undoubtedly the hardest team next to Trenton, but by this time Coach Hauck's men had increased their knowledge of soccer. The letter men are—Schreier, Konikow, Pearl, Farenchak, Romer, McAneny, Hedrick, Rabinowitz, Johnson, Purcell, Osborne, Kenyon, Kassner, and Luery. Rabinowitz is next season's captain.

SWIMMING

THE 1925 swimming team seemed to be made up of steady material. Angleman, the shark, Welanetz, his close second, Bob Howe, the salmon, and Schreier, the little minnow, certainly made excellent discouragement for the fishermen this year, and those who admire illusive fish, fish who bring home the bait, surely enjoyed watching our Green Brook fish swim other aquarians off their fins. And this is no fish tale! Morristown was the first bait, which the team won 45-17. Then Blair sort of blared away at us, conquering 41-21. Next Plainfield lost to Rutgers Prep 34-28, with Angleman laid up at home. Pingry pulled the lead on us in a slow meet, although Kurt Welanetz helped along the 100 yard record. Then Morristown lost again, 44-18, and the season ended by a loss to Peddie in a close and stirring meet, in which Angleman smashed the forty and 100 yard records.

BASKETBALL

THREE cheers to the sectional State Champs! In the whole season the team lost but five games—two to Montclair, one to Morristown, and one each to Rahway and East Orange, both of whom we beat in turn. Captain Lurie was the exclusive, ever-shooting star. So were they all stars. After the season we tackled Battin in our first game for the Championship, and trimmed them 34-14. Then Hackensack was conquered 19-18, although they had beaten Passaic. Passaic, up to then, had won 169 straight games in six years. After beating Hackensack, Plainfield played Passaic in the semi-finals, losing 51-25. Nevertheless, our best team in many years deserves much praise. Honor is due Lurie, Franck, Townley, Zimmer, Terry, Smith, Deakin, and Naidorf. "Norm" Townley is Captain next year. Kramer was the able manager.

TRACK

THIS year P. H. S. needs only some high-jump and broad-jump stars to make a perfect team. We have McKoy, Young, Bremble, Clark, Porinossnick, Czoly, Gesbocker, Greenblatt, Marian, George, Mogey, Kenyon, Bullock, and others. Only one meet has been engaged in so far, that with Englewood, which the opponents won by the score of 73-72. Westfield comes soon on the schedule, and the Rotary Club and Union County meets are not far off. The team has brilliant hopes of winning, or losing dearly, in the rest of the meets. McKoy is very fast in the runs, and Young, though a lightweight, shows up brightly in high-jump, broad-jump, and short runs. Gesbocker is a regular Hercules with the shot-put, and any Aeneas or haughty Greek Olympian star would blush with shame if he saw old "Brad" hurl the javelin or spin the discus.

BASEBALL

ACCORDING to the constitution of this team, one would naturally expect a repetition of last year's State Championship honors. However, there is something wrong, although the material is similar, except three men. Instead of a case of "Experientia docet", we seem to have a case of "Fata obstant". It should be "Nil desperandum". However, we have lost only three games up to date and the team is playing well. The biggest blow was our loss to Westfield. "This was the most unkindest cut of all." (Ask Sol Naidorf, he knows. Orators and baseball players mixed make good—sometimes.) The only severe trouble is that the team keeps Hub Stine on the go laying them out for errors and "off-days". In practice games we vanquished the Alumni 5 to 1 and Rutgers Frosh 4-0. Then we topped off by cleaning up Barringer 11-6. Danny Dugan makes a vocation of striking out 10 or 12 men per game—at the beginning of the season, anyway. And as far as that goes, Art Franck and Norm Townley come in pretty handy. The second team has bright prospects in "Grinning George Tuzo from Terriil Road". He handled the last few innings in the Somerville and North P. H. S. games thoroughly, and, with a good field behind him, trimmed Newark Prep 10-2. The season has thus far progressed in the following manner. Fill in the rest:

|                       |                             |

*---Means second team.

Caleb Westergard is manager. Naidorf makes a big-league catcher, Captain Greenwood ought to be able to serve notice on the Senatorial shortstop, and Owens, Lurie, Klimko, Hetfield, Pfister, (little Babe Ruth), Terry Strapp, Zimmer, Berkeheim, Campbell, and the two Smith's are unsurpassable.

THE SENIOR HOCKEY TEAM

WITH Anne Duchesne as captain, the Senior Hockey Team was most successful this year, having won all their games. The game against the Freshmen was easily won by the score of 29-11. The Sophomores put up a better fight than the Freshmen, but to no avail. The Seniors won 15-8. The Junior game was even more exciting. It ended, however, with a score of 12-8, in favor of our Senior team.

The letter men, those who have played on two winning teams, this year are: Barbara Dunn, Marian Hylan, Claire Geary, Anne Duchesne, Margaret Macintyre, Ellen Robinson, Lillian Nagle, Mary Douglas, Alice Bielefeld, and Estelle Burke.

SENIOR BASKETBALL TEAM

THE Senior Basketball Team won the championship for 1925. They surpassed even our illustrious Faculty Team in the art of shooting baskets. The scores of the games were: Freshmen 5-1, Sophomores 4-1, Juniors 4-3, and Faculty 23-19. The line-up was as follows: Claire Geary, who was also captain of the team, and Anne Duchesne, guards, as they were last year; Mildred Phelan and Margaret Macintyre, side-centers; Ellen Robinson and Alice Bielefeld, alternately playing center; and Barbara Dunn and Marian Hylan, forwards. The teamwork was very fine, all the players being equally good.

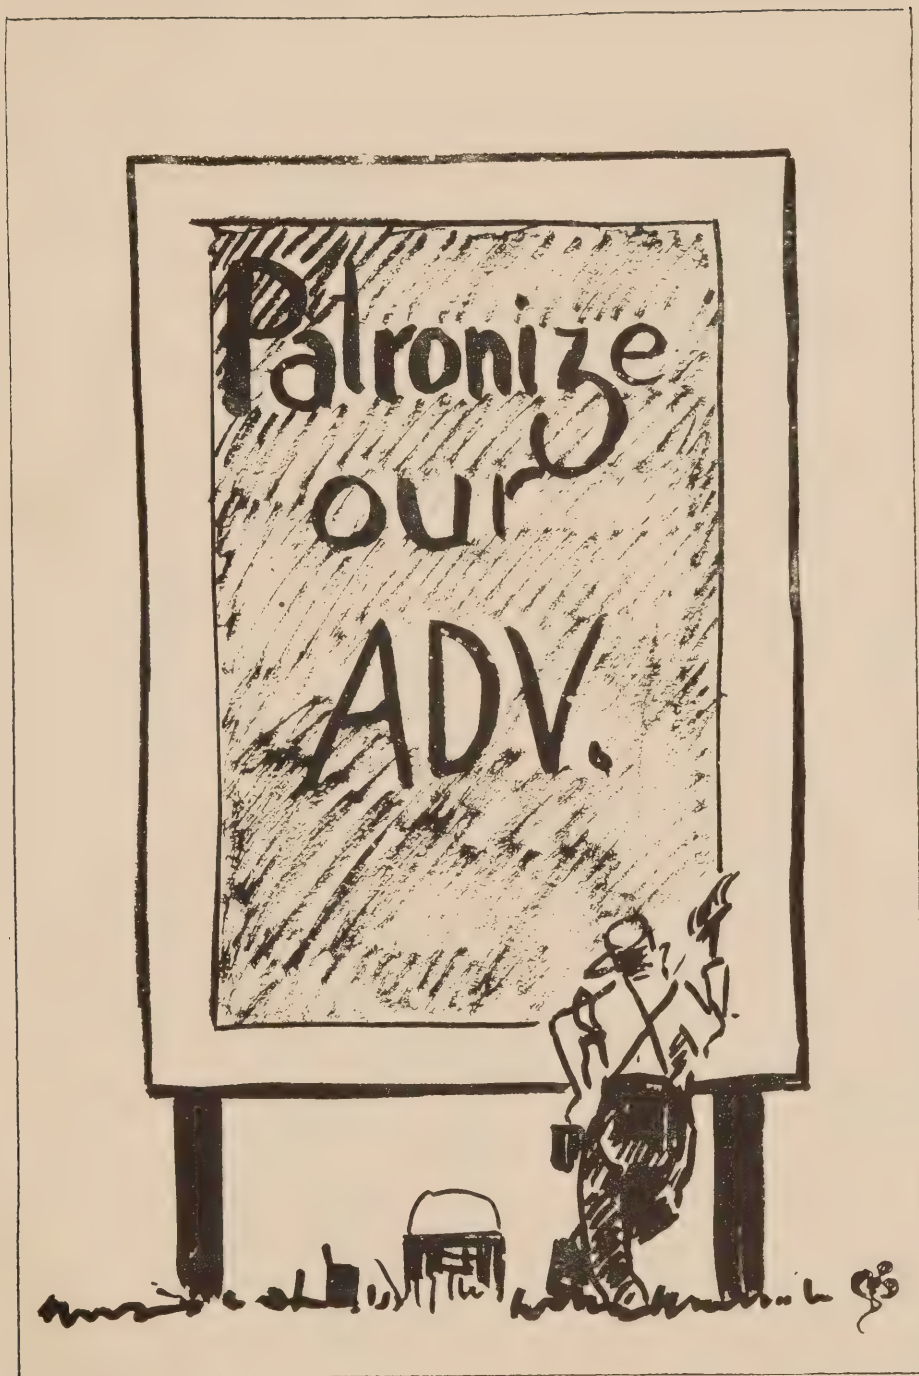

The Junior team gives promise of a successful season next year, even though they did not beat the Senior team this year. They made the game very exciting for the spectators as well as the players, and we hope they may be still more successful in 1926.

MEMORIES OF SCHOOL DAYS

ARE well worth cultivating and keeping.
As the years go by classes separate and interests change. Still we delight to turn back to the carefree days when strong friendships were formed which have strengthened with the passing of years.

Keep the memories of School Days always youthful

Courier News Publishing Co.

We heartily congratulate the members of the Senior Class now leaving this academy for the good work that they have put in. Also, we wish to thank the members who have patronized our store and to remind them that our line is well worthy of their consideration.
